W.A. No. 2152 of 2005

J U D G M E N T (per Hon'ble Sri Justice B. Prakash Rao)

Heard both sides and at their request the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

The appellant is the management, against whom the writ petition filed by the respondent No.2 herein seeking to assail the order passed at the execution stage was allowed and the matter is remitted for fresh consideration.

Though several contentions are sought to be urged, however, the fact remains that the award remains unchallenged and has become final and at this stage E.P. No. 4 of 2001 was filed by the appellant-management and after considering the same, the execution was rejected. On filing of writ petition, this Court has remanded the matter for fresh consideration and disposal to decide the issue in accordance with law leaving both parties to raise all the contentions.

Having regard to the same and especially there was no objection on any of the aspects from either side, we do not find any reasons to allow this appeal.

The writ appeal is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
